

Anaġi Leadership Award

Description

The Anaġi Leadership Award was created to acknowledge the leadership of Arctic Slope Regional Corporation's former president, Jacob Anaġi Adams. This award covers tuition, fees, books, room and board, and shall be used for college or training expenses. The maximum amount for this award is up to $24,000 per school year (fall, spring, spring quarter, and summer terms) and is based on the college's financial need sheet. The scholarship will be awarded for four (4) consecutive school years for full or part-time status or enrollment. The scholarship will be awarded beginning the fall term following the deadline. One scholarship is awarded each year.

Criteria

- Must be an original ASRC shareholder or a direct lineal descendant of an original ASRC shareholder.
- Must have a high school diploma or GED.
- Must have maintained at least a 2.0 or better grade point average during all four years of high school and college or training (if applicable).
- Must plan to enter or currently be enrolled in college or training.
- Must have been involved in school and community extra-curricular activities.
- Must have demonstrated leadership qualities throughout high school and/or college/training.

Application procedure

Students may apply for this scholarship by submitting the following documents:

- Completing the Anaġi Leadership Award application AND regular Arctic Education Foundation scholarship application.
- Submitting two letters of recommendation.
- Submitting a copy of your high school transcript and college/training transcripts (if applicable).
- Submitting a personal essay describing your leadership experience, goals for college/training, and plans after graduating. See essay guidelines below.

Personal Essay

Essay guidelines:
